

English

Inspiration: On Sudden Hill

To choose the correct tense for a piece of writing.

To write in the simple present tense.

To write in the simple past tense.

To use the progressive form of verbs in their writing, e.g. He shouted at the man who was running along path.

To know that contracted verb forms are informal, e.g. can't.

To use and identify verbs in their writing, including - being/ having/doing).

Spelling

Spelling Lessons

Revision:

The possessive apostrophe

Words ending in -tion

The suffixes -ment, -ness, -ful, -less and -ly

Homophones and near-homophones

Maths

Counting - on and back in 3s

Recall and use x and + facts for the 2, 5 and 10 tables

Recognise odd and even (as above)

Calculate mathematical statements for multiplication and division

Commutative law

Geometry - patterns and sequences

Position, direction and movement

Choose and use appropriate standard units to estimate and measure m/cm

Addition and subtraction - see NC

Reading - including Poetry

The Bear and the Piano by D Litchfield

It was Long Ago by E Farjeon (science)

Design Technology

To build structures, exploring how they can be made stronger, stiffer and more stable.

DME a moving go-cart

To explore and use mechanisms, e.g. wheels and axles

Art and Design

To use a range of materials creatively.

wax crayon rubbings

To learn about the work of a range of artists.

Famous Artist Study: car design, Benz, Ford, MG

Street Detectives

Science

Everyday Materials

To find out how the shapes of solid objects made from some materials can be changed by squashing, bending, twisting and stretching.

Apply when designing and creating own carts.

History

To learn about events beyond living memory.

The first motor car - 1885-1886.

To learn about significant historical events, people and places in our locality.

Industry in the local area—visit Stroud museum and the felt factory.

Geography

To use aerial photographs and plans to recognise landmarks and basic human and physical features.

To devise a simple map using basic symbols in a key.

To use basic geographical vocabulary to refer to human and physical features.

Other Subjects Include:

Computing, PE, Music, RE and SMSC.

See separate plans.