SHAKESPEARE WEEK

"Double, double toil and trouble; Fire burn, and cauldron bubble!" Together let's tackle this tragedy! Spooky apparitions, bloody battles and wicked witches ... sounds like a story you need to explore!

To celebrate Shakespeare week this year KS2 were lucky enough to take part in drama workshops by 'One Day Creative'. To prepare for the workshop, each class has had Macbeth read to them. During the workshop the children had the opportunity to explore the story and characters, explore character's thoughts, feelings and motives and explore the context of when the play was written.

UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE!!

Most importantly we'd like to thank so many of you for the positive comments we've received during this strange and difficult time.

Home Learning

Your child/ren will be bringing home an exercise book today, to record their home learning while we are closed.

We are going to use our website and your class pages to share learning activities.

On a weekly basis, by Monday morning, there will be
5 maths problems (1 a day for you to work through)

5 grammar or phonic tasks (1 a day)

1 creative writing task per week

1 reading comprehension task

1 topic related task

Reading really is the key to so much, so at least 15 minutes every day please.

On the front page of our website are links to a variety of websites for you to use.

The work we are providing is to consolidate prior learning and keep children's minds active.

How to contact us

We have set up an e-mail address which will be checked frequently by Miss Sleep and Miss Heague and we will aim to reply as soon as possible.
