Young Voices 2024

Young Voices was as incredible as ever! 5,472 children all singing and dancing together. We watched the brilliant MC Grammar rap about reading, Urban Strides wowed us with their dancing, Nandi Bushell (aged just 13) did the most incredible drumming and the most powerful, inspiring singing by Natalie Williams.

"I loved Young Voices because I could be happy with my friends, whilst doing what I'm passionate about (singing). I had lots of fun learning the songs and just being there was fab." Beth W

"Young Voices was an incredible experience, I will never forget it. It was my first time and I enjoyed myself so so much." Phoebe S

"Young Voices was one of the best events that has ever happened in my school life. I love it." Jemima M

"My favourite part was when all the lights went out and we shone our torches in the air." Laurie

"Young Voices is the best." Esme

"I love Young Voices because you can sing your heart out and I love all the lighting and songs." Josie

PTFA

Donating to the PTFA

Volunteering plays a crucial role in allowing the PTFA to continue to organise and run events to help raise money for our school and children. We do however understand that it is not always possible to volunteer for events. If this is the case we have set up a QR code for money donations. This is a great alternative for those who would love to help support the PTFA, but are unable to partake on the day.

World Book Day Thursday 7th March

Celebration activities are a special part of World Book Day. We are all looking forward to the event, which promotes the love of reading. During the day the children will take part in a 'Speedy Reader' fun classroom event, where they will try to persuade others to read a book that they love. Children are invited to dress up as their favourite book character. Half term is the ideal time to start planning costumes! If you would like to join us on the day to read your favourite book, then please let the office know.

Sponsored Bounce 6th/7th March

Please check your child's book-bag tonight for sponsor forms to be returned to your class teacher by Friday 1st March.
