Year 6 Residential

During the last week of term the year 6 went on their residential to Asbury Manor Resort in Okehampton, Devon. We had a fun-packed four days and three nights. The children did so many activities, it was non-stop! They made candles, went swimming (there were water slides), five a side football, roller skating, pedal karts, ice curling, roller skating to name about a few!

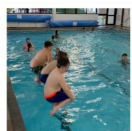

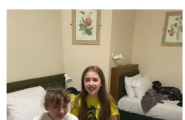

We were exhausted by the end of stay. But made so many happy memories.

"I loved the resi! Swimming was my favourite activity. I taught myself how to swim and I got to do it with my friends. Also, the food was AMAZING." Amora

"Residential was brilliant, but extremely exhausting. My favourite activities were swimming, roller skating and 5 a side." Morris

"I loved resi, my favourite part was when I played pool against Vinnie. The food was amazing." Stan

"I loved the resi, it was amazing. My favourite part was everything! Roller skating, swimming, slides,

Sports Day

A little reminder that the Whole School Sports day is on the 2nd July 2024, from 10am.
The PTFA will be there serving refreshments throughout the event.

Waitrose Donation

Many of you may have noticed a lovely new addition to the lower playground area. Waitrose has kindly donated a lovely bench for the enjoyment of the children. The PTFA would like to thank them for their continued support.
