Christmas Tree Festival

Ruby and Diamond were the first classes from Stroud Valley Primary to visit this year's Christmas Tree Festival at St Laurence's Church. This year's theme for the festival is 'One World' and the children enjoyed looking at all the different lights and decorations which definitely got them into the Christmas spirit!

Hats, gloves and coats

Please can all children bring hats, gloves and coats to school.
Children are very cold on the playground without these things.

Hammocks still needed

Thank you to the family who kindly donated a hammock.
If there are any other hammocks in need of a good home, please send them into school.
Thank you.

PTFA

Advent Fair - SATURDAY 30TH NOVEMBER

The wait is finally over!
Please come along to the SVCS Advent Fair. There will be lots of stalls offering lovely things, refreshments, craft tables, and most importantly a very special visitor who will be waiting in the Grotto.

We also have a raffle with some incredible prizes

This Saturday, 30th November, from 10am - 1pm.
